

This book confronts the questions that few dare to ask and even fewer dare to answer.

IF ALLAH CREATED ME, WHO CREATED ALLAH?

WHY HAVE I BEEN CREATED ? IS IT MERELY FOR WORSHIP?

IF ALLAH HAS PREORDAINED MY DEEDS, WHY SHOULD HE JUDGE ME?

WHY DID ALLAH CREATE EVIL?

WHAT ABOUT THOSE UNREACHED BY THE QUR'AN?

COULD MUHAMMAD BE THE AUTHOR OF THE QUR'AN?

WHY DOES THE DISBELIEVER GO TO HELL FOREVER?

DO WE REALLY HAVE A SOUL? ...ETC.

The purpose of compiling this book was to present to the English speaking public an instructive insight into some of the very basic doctrines and principles of Islamic belief in such a manner as may be helpful in removing the doubts and misgivings raised in the sphere of religious belief in these modern, materialistic times in general, and against Islam in particular.

Muslims have undoubtedly been effected by the Western world such that their identity has become indistinct, their values tarnished with secularism and their vision constricted to oppressively narrow horizons. This treatise is aimed at re-asserting that identity, purifying those values and expanding those horizons.
